Brand colors

Connecting to the methodology and psychology of colors in our brand and engagement

Color holds an intrinsic role in our daily lives, serving as a silent yet powerful communicator that can convey ideas and evoke emotions without a single word. Its presence is foundational, subtly shaping our perceptions and experiences.

The choice of black and white for Connect Financial's primary logo embodies a strategic balance and blend of color psychology. Black embodies sophistication, power, and elegance. It suggests strength and reliability, appealing to a sense of professionalism and seriousness that assures users of the company's credibility and authority in the financial sector. Meanwhile, white stands for purity, simplicity, and clarity. It provides a clean backdrop, offering a sense of peace and calm, and creates a contrast that makes the black even more potent. This monochromatic foundation not only highlights the company's adaptability but also underlines its mission to provide accessible, tailored financial solutions.

Connect Financial then further compliments its monochromatic foundation with hues of blue and purple. Blue stands as the epitome of trust, radiating a sense of reliability, stability, and professionalism. By integrating shades of blue into our design, we aim to cultivate an atmosphere of confidence among our clients, reinforcing our commitment to integrity and dependability. The addition of purple hues embodies luxury and the color merges the tranquil stability of blue with the vibrant energy of red, radiating confidence. It exudes a regal, luxurious quality, intertwining wisdom and power seamlessly, symbolizing both nobility and innovation.

Our logo creation

Methodology: Achieving a balance between simplicity and impact

Our brand identity was meticulously crafted to project a message of strength and reliability, which are indispensable attributes in the financial industry. By employing bold, clean lines in our typography, we underline our unwavering commitment to clarity and efficiency – fundamental principles that guide our operations. Furthermore, the integration of the “CONNECT” concept is adeptly visualized through intricately interconnected letters. This emblematic fusion illustrates the platform’s role in uniting diverse financial services and facilitating a cohesive user experience.

Moreover, the merger of the ‘C’ and ‘O’ not only reinforces the theme of connectivity but also subtly alludes to the symbol of infinity, representing the limitless possibilities available to Connect Financial customers in managing their finances, from digital to traditional assets, in alignment with their personal aspirations. The logo embodies the dynamic, cyclic nature of financial management, empowering users to shape their own financial stories without limitation.

Ultimately, the Connect Financial logo serves as a manifestation of innovative design thinking and the brand’s commitment to fostering a fluid, integrated financial ecosystem. It symbolizes strength, adaptability, and infinite possibilities, encouraging users to discover and engage with the financial world in a manner that seamlessly integrates with their lifestyle.

Know your space

The Connect Financial logo is an integral and balanced entity that must maintain its original shape, formation, and proportions. Consistent use of the brand's signature ensures the preservation of its overall unity and enhances brand recognition. The guidelines provided on this page outline the proper proportions of the vertical and horizontal brand signatures, ensuring they are used correctly in all applications.

Restricted Zone

In order to present the brand signature clearly, there must be a empty space in minimum size around the brand signature and the empty space is called "restriction zone". No words, signs or other graphic elements are allowed to appear in it.. "X" and "Y" in the graph respectively represents the height of word or icon in vertical and horizontal brand signature. In the vertical brand signature "X" represents width in the restricted zone. and "Y" represents the width and height in horizontal brand signature. The size of restricted zone changes as well as the signature zone changes.

Minimum Size

To present the brand signature clearly, there must be a 2-parts of vertical(Y) empty space in minimum size and 4-parts of horizontal(X) empty space. No words, signs or other graphic elements are allowed to appear in it.. "X" and "Y" in the graph respectively represents the height of word or icon in vertical and horizontal brand signature. In the vertical brand signature, "X" represents width in the restricted zone. and "Y" represents the height in horizontal brand signature. The size of restricted zone changes as well as the signature zone changes.

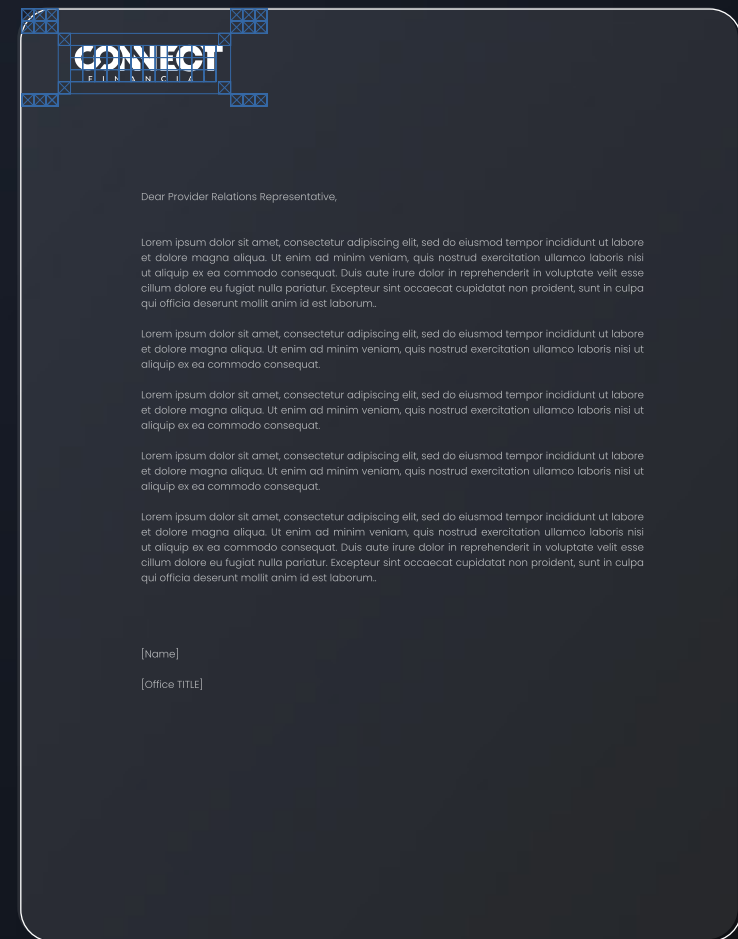

Logo positioning

To present the brand signature clearly, there must be a 2-parts of vertical(Y) empty space in minimum size and 4-parts of horizontal(X) empty space. No words, signs or other graphic elements are allowed to appear within this space. “X” and “Y” in the graph respectively represents the height of the brand signature in vertical and horizontal usage. In the vertical, “X” represents width in the restricted zone. and “Y” represents the height in horizontal. When scaling the brand signature the size of restricted zone will automatically change in locked proportion to the size of the brand identity signature.

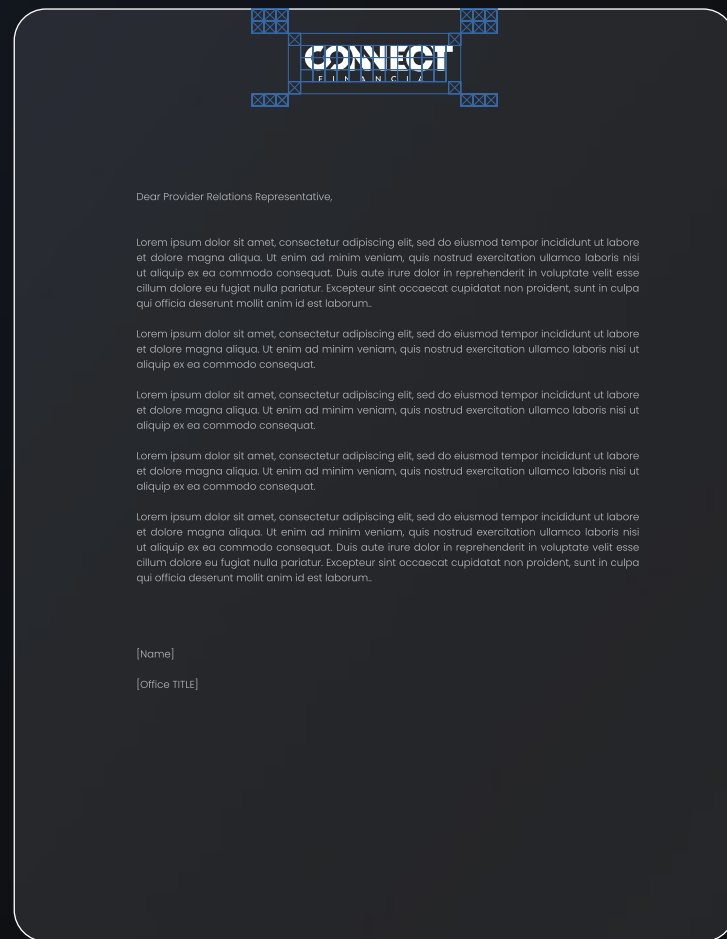

Minimum print size

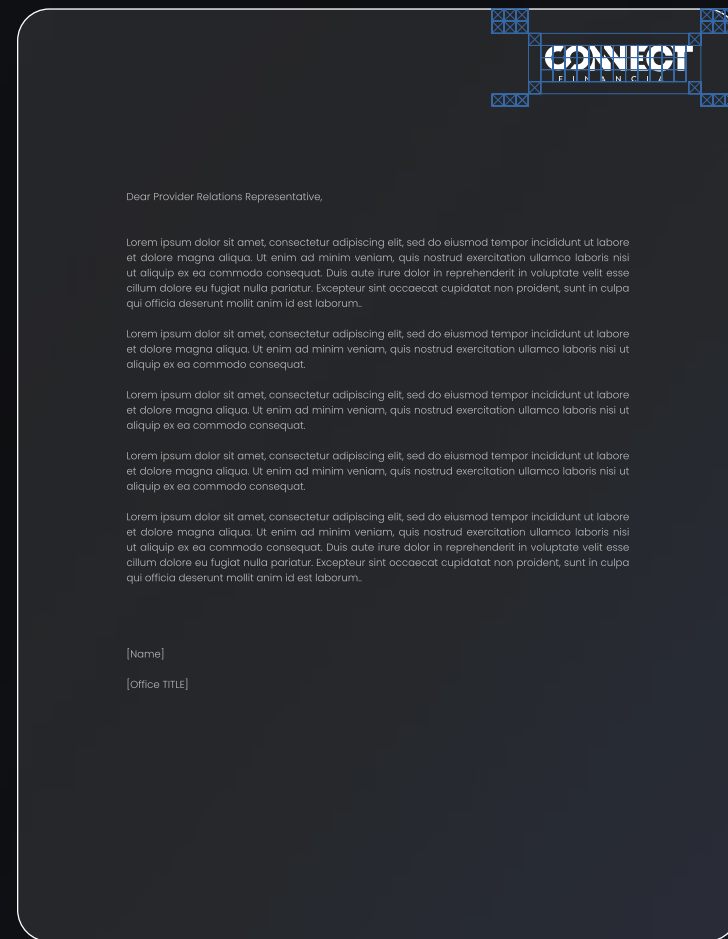

The minimum size of the brand signature in print publications should be the same proportion as the following figures shown below. It should not be smaller than this size to maintain its visibility and clarity.

Brand consistency

Incorrect use of brand signature

Maintaining consistency in the use of the brand signature is crucial. To ensure this, it is recommended to apply the brand signature with care and precision. The diagrams below showcase typical examples of misuse of the brand signature. It is essential to avoid these mistakes to maintain the integrity and recognition of the brand.

Furthermore, adhering strictly to the brand guidelines not only enhances the professional appearance of your materials but also reinforces the brand's identity in the minds of the audience. Regular review and adherence to these standards are necessary to avoid common pitfalls and to ensure the brand is represented accurately and effectively across all platforms.

Misuse 1: Realigning

Realigning of text with the logo should not be changed.

Misuse 2: Line Spacing

The position between the logo and the text should not be changed.

Misuse 3: Elements Resize

The elements within signature should not be changed, magnified or reduced.

Misuse 4: Font Change

Do not change the font type used or its font weight associated.

Misuse 5: Color

Do not change the color. Reference next slides on black and white uses.

Logo to color background

The Connect Financial logo must be in a 100% black (hex value #000000) or the brand's primary color (hex value #222D39) on white or light colored backgrounds without any other elements that distracts the clarity or visibility of the logo. For darker color backgrounds the brand identity must be colored white (hex value #FFFFFF). Must be clear and readable for the viewer at all times. In order to keep consistent usage of the brand signature, please use it prudently. The graphs shown below are the common misuse of the brand signature. Please avoid these following mistakes:
